UM-HELENA TO HOST FOURTH ANNUAL GRIZ FOOTBALL PARTY

HELENA –

The University of Montana Grizzly football team may be playing an away game, but the UM-Helena College of Technology invites fans to make themselves right at home at the fourth annual Griz Football Party. The event kicks off at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8, in the student center of the Donaldson Campus.

Fans can watch the action on two 10-foot screens as the Grizzlies take on the Portland State Vikings. And the festivities don't stop with football. Children are welcome to visit the Griz Kids Corner for prizes and face painting. There also will be Griz-gear giveaways, prizes from local merchants, free popcorn and soda, a beer garden, 50-50 ticket sales and concession stands. And if the weather permits, there will be a rock-climbing wall set up on the north side of the building.

Free and open to the public, the party is co-sponsored by the UM-Helena College of Technology, the University of Montana Alumni Association and the local Army recruiting station.

This will be the fourth year UM-Helena has hosted the Griz Football Party, which attracts hundreds of local fans.

“This has been a great event,” said Dean/CEO Daniel Bingham. “It’s an opportunity for the college to open its doors to the Helena community for a fun activity and highlight our close affiliation with The University of Montana.”
